This database of hand/arm vibration levels is compiled using information provided to the Hire Association Europe (“HAE”) by the manufacturers of the relevant equipment. The HAE does not check the accuracy of the data supplied by the manufacturers. The HAE advises that you verify the data before any reliance is placed upon it. The HAE accepts no liability (whether in contract, tort or otherwise) for any loss and/or damage which is suffered by any person in reliance on the data provided in this database other than any personal injury or death which results from the HAE’s negligence or any other liability which it cannot exclude by law.
